

Discover the connections between faith and finances through ...

7 Steps to Becoming FINANCIALLY Free

This small group study is an ideal setting for learning the nuts and bolts to make the most of God's generous gifts. Additionally, you will find all the necessary tools to implement sound principles of financial management, budgeting and investing in your life.

Phil Lenahan, the facilitator, weaves personal anecdotes with sound Catholic teaching rooted in Scripture and Church teaching, as well as extensive financial counseling to help participants gain clarity on some of the biggest issues faced by many today.

Catholic small-group study

Achieve balance between your faith and finances:

- Deepen your relationship with the Lord
- Build a support network for living your Catholic Faith
- Strengthen your marriage and family life
- Break free from the bondage of consumer debt
- Make a realistic faith-based plan for the future

YOU ARE INVITED!

The series begins on Thursday, October 15 and concludes on Thursday, December 10. Each week a light supper/soup will be offered to participants at 6:00pm and the discussion will follow from 6:30 – 8:00pm. Sessions will be held in St. Mary Parish Social Hall and free babysitting (provided by a grandmother and teen) is available.

Cost for the seven week series is $30.00 which includes a text book and workbook. More information and registration is available by calling St. Mary Parish Office (734-241-1644) or Lorie Bronson (734-241-6088).

Past participants have this to share about the benefits realized by living the principles learned in the 7 Steps to Becoming Financially Free program:

1. We have eliminated our student loan debts.
2. This program added a valuable religious component to our financial understanding.
3. We are in a better place spiritually and financially.
4. Our marriage has been strengthened.

All are welcome whether you are just beginning your career or marriage, are in the midst of raising a family or looking toward retirement!